Content Acceptance Policy

This Policy applies in addition to the General Terms and Conditions for Webmasters (AGB). It specifies the obligations set out in Section 5 of the AGB and forms an integral part of the contractual relationship between INET-CASH and each WEBMASTER.

Every WEBMASTER of INET-CASH agrees to abide by the following policy. INET-CASH reserves the right to change and update this policy as it sees necessary.

Access to INET-CASH'S service is provided subject to the following:

A. Unacceptable Conduct

The following types of conduct are grounds for immediate suspension of service pending investigation by INET-CASH and may result in termination of any and all accounts held by the individual, corporation, or website associated with these violations.

1. Violation of INET-CASH Policy

   a. Any attempt to remove INET-CASH's name, logo, or customer support link without prior permission.

   b. Failure to fulfill access or services sold to customers who make a successful transaction.

   c. The posting, display, or advertising of any image or video using a person under the age of 18 years.

   d. Marketing the site utilizing content including "Kids", "Lolita", "Pedo", "Peta", "Peto", "Pre-teen", "Pedophile", "Underage", "Child" or any other words, images, videos or descriptions that would lead someone to believe that the models are less than 18 years of age is not permitted anywhere on the venue, including the URL and meta tags.

   e. Marketing a site with the term "teen" without the appendix "18", including the URL and meta tags.

   f. The posting, display or advertising of any image or video or wording depicting or related to child or animal pornography, forced, extreme violence, incest, snuff, hanging, abduction, asphyxiation, mutilation or rape, hypnosis, torture, propaganda material or symbols of anti-constitutional organizations, or any other illegal content anywhere on the site, including the URL and meta tags.

g. The posting or display of any image or video or wording related to any website running, participating, or advertising acts allowing the subscriber to bet or gamble on an uncertain outcome, or to play a game of chance for stakes.

h. Any attempt to display, sell, or transfer materials that violate or infringe any copyright, trademark, right of publicity, patent, statutory, common law or proprietary rights of others, or contain anything obscene, libelous or threatening. Display of the trade or service marks of any credit card company on any webpage is specifically prohibited without the express written permission of the credit card company.

i. Reproduction or transmission of any material in violation of any local, state or international law or regulation is prohibited. INET-CASH makes every attempt in such cases to work with both local and foreign law enforcement agencies to provide information about the providers and purchasers of such material.

j. WEBMASTERs must determine their legal responsibility to and method of complying with 18 U.S.C. 2257 where required to do so.

k. MasterCard specifically prohibits the use of MasterCard's registered marks including the word "MasterCard" and/or their logo on any site without their written permission.

l. Any attempt to mislead the consumer as to the site's content or actual initial or recurring pricing of the venue.

m. Failure to place a clear disclosure of trial periods and recurring charges conspicuously on the website.

n. Using any wording relating to credit card use for age verification purposes.

o. The members' area of the venue may not be inaccessible to users for more than a 24-hour period at a time, and not more than one 24-hour period in a 30-day period.

p. If WEBMASTER chooses to utilize a recurring access option for sites containing members' areas, the members' area must be updated in a time frame that is equal to or less than the renewal cycle. For example, if access renews every thirty days, WEBMASTER must update the members' area at least every thirty days.

q. INET-CASH will not provide services for venues offering shell accounts. INET-CASH may suspend or terminate service access for any venue whose primary use can be determined as supporting the use of bots or any other programs executed on a server through a Telnet or a dial-up account.

r. INET-CASH will not provide services for sites advertising or selling the following:

a. Attempts, whether successful or not, to gain access to any other system or users‘ private data without express consent of the user.

b. Any unauthorized attempts to gain access to any other WEBMASTER account.

c. Any activity, which violates any local, state, U.S., or international law or regulation.

B. Certification

The WEBMASTER must certify and, upon request, provide evidence that:

- they review all uploaded content prior to publication to ensure it is not illegal or otherwise in violation of the scheme standards and/or this Policy;
- they do not market or use content or search terms that may give the impression that content contains or refers to child exploitation material, non-consensual activities, or any other form of illegal content;
- they prohibit any use of their websites to promote, facilitate, or depict human trafficking, sex trafficking, or physical abuse;
- they maintain an age confirmation warning prior to displaying any adult content (where legally required);
- they only permit content created by themselves or from verified third-party providers;

- they have a process in place for verifying the age and identity of third-party users that upload or generate content;
- they can fully control live streaming platforms, including real-time monitoring and content removal;
- they obtain and retain written consent from all persons depicted in the content;
- they maintain a complaints procedure for reporting content and resolving issues within 5 working days;
- they implement a removal process that allows any person depicted to request deletion of content lacking valid consent;
- they maintain a process for resolving disputes regarding void consent through a neutral body;
- they can provide card schemes with access credentials for viewing restricted content when required;
- all their websites are certified with the US code title 18 section 2257 statement.

C. Monitoring / Privacy

INET-CASH has the right to obtain the following documents, links to online pages, or elements of the authentication test upon request:

- Anti-Slavery Policy (covering human trafficking, sex trafficking and physical abuse)
- Descriptions for:
    - Pre-screening and review for any content prior to publication
    - Vetting procedure(s) or system(s) for all content
    - Compliance processes to align business activity with regulatory requirements
    - Number of moderators and/or third-party moderators
    - Any real-time monitoring process and/or tools
    - Any real-time content removal process and/or system and/or toolset

INET-CASH reserves the right to request documentation, conduct sample checks, and require access to WEBMASTER's sites for compliance with this policy and INET-CASH's Terms and Conditions. INET-CASH may also be required to ensure that representatives of the card associations and/or their acquiring members can verify compliance with their operating rules.

It may become necessary for INET-CASH's employees to examine relevant compliance logs, system logs and other records made available to INET-CASH to determine if violations of this policy, privacy violations or other network-unfriendly activities have occurred.

D. Cooperation with Authorities

INET-CASH reserves the right to cooperate with law enforcement and other authorities in investigating claims of illegal activity including, but not limited to, illegal transfer or availability of copyrighted material, trademarks, or child pornography.

E. Confidentiality of Personal Subscriber Information

INET-CASH will not release any WEBMASTER or customer personal subscriber information, nor billing information, to any third party except upon presentation of a valid court order, or other legal obligation.

F. INET-CASH's Right to Modify this Content Acceptance Policy

INET-CASH may modify this policy on its website at any time, subject to the applicable General Terms and Conditions. It is the WEBMASTER's responsibility to review the policy on a regular basis to ensure compliance with the latest version. Use of INET-CASH's services after such changes constitutes acceptance of the modified policy.
